TUESDAY ZOOM FORUMS (U3A CANBERRA)

NEW!AGEING—LET'S TALK ABOUT IT!*82

In a world obsessed with youth, we are not usually encouraged to talk about our experiences as we age. I believe that this way everyone misses out: older people do not have many places where they can discuss and share their problems and experiences, and pass on what they have learnt in that time of gradual or sometimes sudden decline. This way, the next generation has to re-invent the wheel of ageing from scratch.

In this group we have the opportunity of creating a space where we can safely explore our experiences, how we feel, what's difficult about this time, and what resources we have discovered to make this phase of our lives not just bearable, but finding ways to experience joy, connection and meaning. We can share our experiences, and talk about how we deal with different aspects of ageing in our current social environment.

Each meeting will have a specific topic. The list will include both practical/ physical as well as mental/ emotional topics. Some ideas for topics are memory, hearing loss, friendship and connections, sickness and pain, mental health, losing loved ones, spirituality, death and dying, our relationship with family members, and how we cope with modern technology. Participants are encouraged to contribute ideas about topics they would like to discuss.

AGREEING TO PEACE: YES OR NO78

How is it possible to resolve our differences when we disagree about important matters. For example in referendum for an Aboriginal Voice to parliament people were divided in favour or against.

This is a series of workshops that lead to understanding and practising strategies for living beyond blame and being positive even under difficult circumstances. We are using skills that promote peaceful attitudes to ourselves and others. The work will be done individually, in pairs and in small groups, using quiet exercises and roleplay where comfortable. It can be both fun and enlightening. The workshops are based on the work of Marshall Rosenberg and the Centre for Non-Violent Communication (CNVC).

Each term of workshop will cover the full range of strategies and attitudes. However it will not be repetitive to participate in the course more than once. It is important to purchase the course text. However, I have some extra copies to lend if you are unable to afford one.

Beneficial exercise where the body's weight is partly supported by the water. WRITING – LET’S WRITE! 71

Writing is a gift we can give to ourselves and others by discovering the writer within. In her book ‘With the Fire on High’, Elizabeth Acevedo says “taking risks and making choices in spite of fears – it’s what makes stories compelling”. In this writing group we can share our stories, our knowledge and encourage each other to write in an atmosphere full of joy and laughter, acceptance and tolerance, trust and encouragement, as we explore the beauty of writing words.
